St. Jude's Parish

Welcome to New Parishioners
We warmly welcome all new parishioners to St. Jude's and encourage them to register in the parish office. Offertory envelopes are available upon request when registration takes place.

Sacrament of Baptism
Contact the parish at least six months before the desired date of baptism to obtain information regarding requirements and sacramental preparation, and to discuss any other concerns you may have.

Confessions
The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available Saturdays at 4:00pm - 4:45pm and other times by appointment.

First Communion & Confirmation Program
Parents are asked to contact the office for information. Our programs begin in the fall (September or October) and end with the reception of the sacraments. Registration dates are announced in the bulletin, on our website, social media, and from the pulpit.

Sacrament of Matrimony
Couples contemplating marriage at St. Jude's parish are required to make contact with the parish office and review the marriage package before an interview with the priest. Diocesan regulation demands that marriages are booked one year in advance minimum.

Funerals
Please contact the Funeral Home of your choice first. They will contact the parish office to make church arrangements. Remember Catholic Cemeteries when making your arrangements.

R.C.I.A. and R.C.I.C. Programs
The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) and for Children (RCIC) has now been implemented. Please contact the office to register and arrange to fill out an application for next year. The RCIA will only take place if a minimum of 5 people register.

First Friday
Every First Friday of the month Mass at 8:00am, Holy Hour at 6:00pm, Mass at 7:00pm and devotions to St. Jude after mass.

V Sunday in Ordinary Time

The call. In today's gospel according to St. Luke, we find the call that Jesus makes to the first three disciples, who will be his witnesses in such significant moments of his ministry, such as the resurrection of a girl, the transfiguration on Mount Tabor and the prayer in the Garden of Olives. They are Peter, James and John.

The three were washing their nets together with their other fellow fishermen, after an unsuccessful night of fishing, when Jesus asks them permission to board Simon's boat and move it a little away from the shore, so that from there he can speak to the crowd gathered around him. Jesus, who as God is all-powerful, as a human needs help to fulfill his mission and asks for the necessary support. Let us not close ourselves off from asking for help with humility, because we all need everyone.

Those fishermen grant Jesus what he asks. After preaching Jesus orders them to put the boat out into the deep and cast their nets again. Simon Peter speaks on behalf of everyone, agreeing to what Jesus asked, but not before warning him that they had already worked all night and had caught nothing. Although he does not say it, he knows in advance that if there was no fishing at night, there will be none during the day either, but there was such strength and depth in Jesus' preaching that they obey him and that is why Simon Peter adds: "But, trusting in your word, I will cast the nets" (Lk 5:5). We already know that the result was a miraculous catch.

My brothers and sisters, the disciples trust in the Lord Jesus, so let us trust in the same way that whatever work we do (including studies and housework) let us do in the name of the one who can do everything the Lord Jesus Christ.

V Domenica del Tempo Ordinario

La chiamata. Nel Vangelo odierno secondo San Luca, troviamo la chiamata che Gesù rivolge ai primi tre discepoli, che saranno i suoi testimoni in momenti così significativi del suo ministero, come la risurrezione di una fanciulla, la trasfigurazione sul monte Tabor e la preghiera nell'Orto degli Ulivi. Sono Pietro, Giacomo e Giovanni.

I tre stavano lavando le reti insieme agli altri pescatori, dopo una notte di pesca infruttuosa, quando Gesù chiede loro il permesso di salire sulla barca di Simone e di allontanarla un po' dalla riva, così da poter parlare da lì alla folla radunata attorno a lui. Gesù, che come Dio è onnipotente, come uomo ha bisogno di aiuto per compiere la sua missione e chiede il sostegno necessario. Non chiudiamoci a chiedere aiuto con umiltà, perché tutti abbiamo bisogno di tutti.

Quei pescatori concedono a Gesù ciò che chiede. Dopo la predicazione, Gesù ordina loro di gettare la barca al largo e di gettare di nuovo le reti. Simon Pietro parla a nome di tutti, acconsentendo a ciò che Gesù aveva chiesto, ma non prima di averlo avvisato che avevano già lavorato tutta la notte e non avevano pescato nulla. Sebbene non lo dica, sa in anticipo che se non c'è stata pesca di notte, non ci sarà nemmeno durante il giorno, ma c'era tale forza e profondità nella predicazione di Gesù che gli obbediscono ed è per questo che Simon Pietro aggiunge: "Ma, fiducioso nella tua parola, getterò le reti" (Lc 5:5). Sappiamo già che il risultato è stata una pesca miracolosa.

Fratelli miei, i discepoli confidano nel Signore Gesù, quindi confidiamo allo stesso modo che qualsiasi lavoro facciamo (compresi gli studi e le faccende domestiche) facciamolo nel nome di colui che può fare tutto il Signore Gesù Cristo.

V Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

La llamada. En el evangelio de hoy según san Lucas encontramos la llamada que Jesús hace a los tres primeros discípulos, que serán sus testigos en momentos significativos de su ministerio, como la resurrección de una niña, la transfiguración en el monte Tabor y la oración en el Huerto de los Olivos. Se trata de Pedro, Santiago y Juan. Los tres estaban lavando las redes junto con sus otros compañeros pescadores, después de una noche de pesca infructuosa, cuando Jesús les pide permiso para subir a la barca de Simón, la aleja un poco de la orilla y desde allí habla a la multitud reunida a su alrededor. Jesús, que como Dios es todopoderoso, como hombre necesita ayuda para cumplir su misión y pide el apoyo necesario. No nos cerremos a pedir ayuda con humildad, porque todos necesitamos de todos.

Aquellos pescadores le conceden a Jesús lo que les pide. Después de predicar, Jesús les ordena que echen la barca mar adentro y echen de nuevo las redes. Simón Pedro habla en nombre de todos, accediendo a lo que Jesús pedía, no sin antes advertirle que ya habían trabajado toda la noche y no habían pescado nada. Aunque no lo dice, sabe de antemano que si no había pesca de noche, tampoco la habrá de día, pero había tanta fuerza y profundidad en la predicación de Jesús que le obedecen y por eso Simón Pedro añade: "Pero yo, confiando en tu palabra, echaré las redes" (Lc 5,5). Ya sabemos que el resultado fue una pesca milagrosa.

Hermanos míos, los discípulos confían en el Señor Jesús, así que confiemos de la misma manera que cualquier trabajo que hagamos (incluso los estudios y las tareas del hogar) hagámoslo en nombre de aquel que todo lo puede el Señor Jesucristo.

Mass Intentions

Mass intentions to be announced on weekend masses and the following week, must be requested by Wednesday of each week. We cannot change dates for masses previously requested. Each mass intention can include up to two individual names with the same last name. Thank you for your understanding and your cooperation.

Pastoral Reference Requests

In order for the pastor to be able to recommend you, he needs to know you. This is only possible if he has personal knowledge of your faith practice and involvement in the parish; not your relatives, but yourself, as this is a personal recommendation.

The following are required at St. Jude's:

- ♦ Be (yourself, not your parents or grandparents) a registered member of the parish using offertory envelopes for at least one year.
- ♦ Be in the parish for participation in Sunday/Saturday mass for at least one year prior to approaching the pastor.
- ♦ Applicant must be actively involved in a parish ministry or volunteer activity for a least one year.
- ♦ Please ensure that you meet these requirements before making your request.

It is important for you to know that to be hired to teach in any Catholic School Board in Ontario as part of your application for employment you must provide a letter of recommendation from your Pastor.
