St. Jude's Parish

Welcome to New Parishioners
We warmly welcome all new parishioners to St. Jude's and encourage them to register in the parish office. Offertory envelopes are available upon request when registration takes place.

Sacrament of Baptism
Contact the parish at least six months before the desired date of baptism to obtain information regarding requirements and sacramental preparation, and to discuss any other concerns you may have.

Confessions
The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available Saturdays at 4:00pm - 4:45pm and other times by appointment.

First Communion & Confirmation Program
Parents are asked to contact the office for information. Our programs begin in the fall (September or October) and end with the reception of the sacraments. Registration dates are announced in the bulletin, on our website, social media, and from the pulpit.

Sacrament of Matrimony
Couples contemplating marriage at St. Jude's Parish are asked to contact the parish office and review the marriage package before an interview with the priest. Diocesan regulation demands that marriages are booked one year in advance minimum.

Funerals
Please contact the Funeral Home of your choice first. They will contact the parish office to make church arrangements.
Remember Catholic Cemeteries when making your arrangements.

R.C.I.A. and R.C.I.C. Programs
The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) and for Children (RCIC) has now been implemented. Please contact the office to register and arrange to fill out an application for next year. The RCIA will only take place if a minimum of 5 people register.

III Sunday in Ordinary Time
The Gospel of St. Matthew presents us the beginning of the public life of Jesus when John the Baptist was arrested.
For this beginning, Jesus left his city of Nazareth and moved to Capernaum, a fishing village. St. Matthew points out the fulfillment of Isaiah’s prophecy, the same one that appears today in the first reading and that says: “Land of Zebulun and Naphtali, road to the sea, on the other side of the Jordan, Galilee of the nations. The people who walk in darkness have seen a great light. On those who lived in the land of shadows a light shone” (Is 8, 23 – 9, 1).
Jesus begins his ministry by calling for conversion, that is, for a change of life, and the reason for converting is that the Kingdom of heaven is near. It is God who is close, much closer than people imagined. It was God in person, incarnate, flesh and blood, who was present and spoke to them. He spoke to them and invited them to follow him. In this Gospel we also hear the call that he makes to his disciples and how they left everything.
My brothers and sisters, let us do the same! With Jesus we lose nothing, we win everything. Let him help us by listening to his Word, receiving the sacraments from him, and conversing with him in prayer. By following him we will not walk in the darkness, but illuminated with the light that is Christ.

III Domenica del Tempo Ordinario
Il Vangelo di San Matteo ci presenta l'inizio della vita pubblica di Gesù, con l'arresto di Giovanni Battista.
Per questo inizio, Gesù lasciò la sua città di Nazareth e si trasferì a Cafarnaon, un villaggio di pescatori. San Matteo sottolinea l'adempimento della profezia di Isaia, la stessa che appare oggi nella prima lettura e che dice: "Terra di Zabulon e di Nèftali, strada del mare, oltre il Giordano, Galilea delle genti. Il popolo che camminava nelle tenebre ha visto una grande luce; su coloro che abitavano nella terra delle tenebre una luce rifulse" (Is 8, 23 – 9, 1).
Gesù inizia il suo ministero invitando alla conversione, cioè a un cambiamento di vita, e il motivo della conversione è che il Regno dei cieli è vicino. È Dio che è vicino, molto più vicino di quanto la gente immaginasse. Era Dio in persona, incarnato, carne e sangue, che era presente e parlava loro. Parlava loro e li invitava a seguirlo. In questo Vangelo ascoltiamo anche la chiamata che Egli rivolge ai suoi discepoli e come essi abbiano lasciato tutto.

Fratelli e sorelle, facciamo lo stesso! Con Gesù non perdiamo nulla, vinciamo tutto. Lasciamo che ci aiuti ascoltando la sua Parola, ricevendo da Lui i sacramenti e dialogando con Lui nella preghiera. Seguendolo non cammineremo nelle tenebre, ma illuminati dalla luce che è Cristo.

III Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
El Evangelio de San Mateo nos presenta el comienzo de la vida pública de Jesús cuando Juan el Bautista fue arrestado.
Para este comienzo, Jesús dejó su ciudad de Nazaret y se trasladó a Cafarnaúm, un pueblo de pescadores. San Mateo señala el cumplimiento de la profecía de Isaías, la misma que aparece hoy en la primera lectura y que dice: «Tierra de Zabulón y Neftalí, camino del mar, al otro lado del Jordán, Galilea de las naciones. El pueblo que caminaba en tinieblas vio una gran luz. Sobre los que vivían en tierra de sombras brilló una luz» (Is 8, 23 – 9, 1).
Jesús comienza su ministerio llamando a la conversión, es decir, a un cambio de vida, y la razón de la conversión es que el Reino de los Cielos está cerca. Es Dios quien está cerca, mucho más cerca de lo que la gente imaginaba. Fue Dios en persona, encarnado, de carne y hueso, quien estuvo presente y les habló. Les habló y los invitó a seguirlo. En este Evangelio también escuchamos el llamado que hace a sus discípulos y cómo ellos lo dejaron todo.
Hermanos y hermanas, ¡hagamos lo mismo! Con Jesús no perdemos nada, lo ganamos todo. Que nos ayude escuchando su Palabra, recibiendo los sacramentos y conversando con él en oración. Siguiéndolo, no caminaremos en la oscuridad, sino iluminados por la gracia y la luz que es Cristo.

“Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.” Are you willing to proclaim the coming of the kingdom as a priest, deacon, brother or sister? If God is calling you, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations for the Archdiocese of Toronto at vocations@archtoronto.org 416-968-997

A Celebration of Marriage
On Sunday, February 8, 2026 at 2:30pm Bishop John A. Boissonneau will preside at a special Mass at St. Michael’s Cathedral Basilica, to honour married couples, with special recognition for those celebrating 25th, 40th, 50th, 60th and 60plus wedding anniversaries in 2026. All married couples will have an opportunity to renew their marriage commitment. All are welcome to attend.
Couples celebrating a 25th, 40th, 50th, 60th or 60plus anniversary in 2026 may register for reserved seating. All other seating is on a first-come, first-served basis. Those who are unable to attend at the Cathedral are invited to join the celebration via livestream Mass. The broadcast will begin at 2:15pm. Registration and other important information can be found at www.archtoronto.org/marriage

Second Collection
Next weekend, January 31st and February 1st, we have a second collection for the Building Maintenance fund, to continue taking care of our Church building. Thank you for your generosity.

World Interfaith Harmony Week, February 1 to 7, 2026
World Interfaith Harmony Week was adopted by the United Nations on October 20, 2010, designating the first week of February each year for its observance. The initiative invites people of all faiths, as well as those of goodwill, to engage in dialogue grounded in two moral principles: love of God and love of neighbour, without compromising individual religious convictions.

“The Church exhorts her sons and daughters, that through dialogue and collaboration with the followers of other religions, carried out with prudence and love and in witness to the Christian faith and life, they recognize, preserve, and promote the good things, spiritual and moral, as well as the socio-cultural values found among them.” (Nostra aetate §2)

Mass Intentions
Mass intentions to be announced on weekend masses and the following week, must be requested by Wednesday of each week at office closing time or 4:00pm. We cannot change dates for masses previously requested. Each mass intention can include up to two individual names with the same last name. Thank you for your understanding and your co-operation.

Pastoral Reference Requests
In order for the pastor to be able to recommend you, he needs to know you. This is only possible if he has personal knowledge of your faith practice and involvement in the parish; not your relatives, but yourself, as this is a personal recommendation. The following are required at St. Jude’s:
♦ Be (yourself, not your parents or grandparents) a registered member of the parish using offertory envelopes for at least one year.
♦ Be in the parish for participation in Sunday/Saturday mass for at least one year prior to approaching the pastor.
♦ Applicant must be actively involved in a parish ministry or volunteer activity for a least one year. requirements before making your request.
It is important for you to know that to be hired to teach in any Catholic School Board in Ontario as part of your application for employment you must provide a recommendation letter from your Pastor.
