St. Jude's Parish

Welcome to New Parishioners

We warmly welcome all new parishioners to St. Jude's and encourage them to register in the Parish. Offertory envelopes are available upon request at the parish office.

Sacrament of Baptism

Contact the parish at least six months before the desired date of baptism to obtain information regarding requirements and sacramental preparation, and to discuss any concerns you may have.

Confessions

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available Saturdays at 4:00pm - 4:45pm and other times by appointment.

First Communion & Confirmation Program

Parents are asked to contact the office for information. Registration dates are announced in the bulletin, on our website, social media, and from the pulpit. Our programs begin in the fall, and end with the reception of the sacraments.

Sacrament of Matrimony

Couples contemplating marriage at St. Jude's Parish are asked to contact the parish office and review the marriage package before an interview with the priest. Diocesan regulation demands that marriages are booked one year in advance minimum.

Funerals

Please contact the Funeral Home of your choice first. They will contact the parish office to make church arrangements. Remember Catholic Cemeteries when making your arrangements.

R.C.I.A. and R.C.I.C. Programs

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) and for Children (RCIC) has now been implemented. Please contact the office to register and arrange to fill out an application for next year. The RCIA will only take place if a minimum of 5 people register.

XXVIII Sunday in Ordinary Time

“On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food”

Isaiah 25.6 My brothers and sisters, the first readings for this Sunday speak to us about a feast a banquet.

The reading from the prophet Isaiah speaks of a banquet that the Lord himself will prepare for all peoples, but it will be for “that day”, the day of the Lord, which can be understood at the end of time, when all the sufferings of this world will have its end. “He will destroy death forever; The Lord God will wipe away the tears” (Is 25:8).

The host of this banquet is the same Lord to whom we say in the psalm: “You yourself prepare the table for me, in spite of my adversaries; You anoint my head with perfume and fill my cup to the brim.” The Psalm 23. It is good that we listen to these words and proclaim them in moments of calm, so that in the hour of trials and death we maintain hope.

The daily Eucharist, especially the Sunday Eucharist, is the sacramental banquet in which Christians participate in the hope of celebrating at the eternal banquet in heaven. We need be ready for that day by wearing our wedding garment.

XXVIII Domenica Del Tempo Ordinario

«Su questo monte il Signore degli eserciti preparerà per tutti i popoli un banchetto di cibi succulenti» (Isaia 25,6). Fratelli e sorelle, le letture di questa domenica ci parlano di una festa, di un banchetto.

La lettura tratta dal profeta Isaia parla di un banchetto che il Signore stesso preparerà per tutti i popoli; esso avrà luogo in «quel giorno», il giorno del Signore – da intendersi come la fine dei tempi –, quando tutte le sofferenze di questo mondo giungeranno al termine. «Eliminerà la morte per sempre; il Signore Dio asciugherà le lacrime» (Is 25,8).

L’ospite che offre questo banchetto è lo stesso Signore a cui ci rivolgiamo nel Salmo: «Tu stesso prepari la mensa per me, sotto gli occhi dei miei nemici; ungi di profumo il mio capo e colmi fino all’orlo il mio calice» (Salmo 23). È bene ascoltare queste parole e proclamarle nei momenti di serenità, affinché nell’ora della prova e della morte possiamo conservare la speranza.

L’Eucaristia quotidiana, e in particolare quella domenicale, è il banchetto sacramentale a cui i cristiani partecipano nella speranza di celebrare il banchetto eterno in cielo. Dobbiamo farci trovare pronti per quel giorno, indossando la nostra veste nuziale.

XXVIII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

«En este monte, el Señor de los ejércitos preparará para todos los pueblos un banquete de manjares succulentos» (Isaías 25, 6). Hermanos y hermanas, las lecturas de este domingo nos hablan de una fiesta, de un banquete.

La lectura del profeta Isaías habla de un banquete que el Señor mismo preparará para todos los pueblos, pero será para «aquel día», el día del Señor —que puede entenderse como el fin de los tiempos—, cuando todos los sufrimientos de este mundo llegarán a su fin. «Destruirá la muerte para siempre; el Señor Dios enjugará las lágrimas» (Is 25, 8).

El anfitrión de este banquete es el mismo Señor a quien decimos en el salmo: «Tú mismo me preparas la mesa, a pesar de mis adversarios; unges mi cabeza con perfume y colmas mi copa hasta rebosar» (Salmo 23). Es bueno escuchar estas palabras y proclamarlas en momentos de calma, para que en la hora de la prueba y de la muerte mantengamos la esperanza.

La Eucaristía diaria, y especialmente la dominical, es el banquete sacramental en el que los cristianos participan con la esperanza de celebrar el banquete eterno en el cielo. Debemos estar preparados para ese día vistiendo nuestro traje de bodas.

Rosary Devotion

October is a month dedicated to the Holy Rosary. According to Pope Saint John Paul II, rosary devotions are "among the finest and most praiseworthy traditions of Christian contemplation." From its origins in the twelfth century the rosary has been seen as a meditation on the life of Christ, and it is as such that many Popes have approved of and encourage its recitation.

We encourage everyone in our community to pray a daily Rosary for peace in the world and unity in the Christian community.

Second Collection

Next weekend, October 17th and 18th, we will have a second collection for the Evangelization of the Nations, otherwise known as World Mission Sunday. This is a worldwide collection for the missionary church and it is our opportunity to assist at-need Catholic Communities globally. Offerings are combined with offerings from other Catholics around the world and distributed to missions and dioceses. We are called to share from our abundance with those less fortunate who lack the basic essentials to know, love and praise God. Thank you for your support of this important work.

Office Closed

Monday October 12th, we celebrate Thanksgiving, the parish office will be closed and the morning mass is at the regular time 8:00am.

TV DRAW

Enter for a chance to win an LG 75”AI 4K Mini-LED Smart TV. Tickets are

The draw will take place on December 6th, 2026. Buy more tickets for more chances to win! All proceeds will help repay the loan of the new roof. Thank you for your Support.

ShareLife

2026 Food Security Grants

ShareLife and Catholic Charities are committing funds through the Food Security Grants program. Made possible through the faithful generosity of Share-Life donors, this year, $850,000 in Grants will help local food banks, meal programs and other community-based initiatives.

Your support of the ShareLife Campaign helps make this work possible. We have currently raised $26,496.50 (84.12%) toward our 2026 Parish goal of $31,500.00. Please support the fight against hunger by giving at the parish using a ShareLife envelope or at share-life.org/donate. Thank you for living the Gospel!

World Youth Day 2027

Pilgrimage to Seoul, South Korea

The Office of Catholic Youth (OCY) is excited to begin gathering interest for the World Youth Day 2027 pilgrimage to Seoul, South Korea. We invite young adults ages 19 - 39 to let us know if they are interested in travelling with OCY for this incredible pilgrimage of faith, prayer, and communion with the universal Church. The WYD 2027 theme is: “Take courage! I have overcome the world” (John 16:33). Chosen by Pope Francis, this theme encourages young people to place their hope and confidence in Christ in a world often marked by anxiety, division, and rapid change. World Youth Day is a powerful opportunity to encounter Christ, grow in faith, and join young Catholics from around the world in a joyful pilgrimage. As

Safety Reminder

We remind the community that according to the fire department safety regulations, it is NOT allowed to place baby strollers in the church isles during mass. The isles need to be clear to evacuate the building in case of an emergency.

Mass Intentions

Mass intentions to be announced on weekend masses and the following week, must be requested by Wednesday of each week at office closing time or 4:00pm. We cannot change dates for masses previously requested. Each mass intention can include up to two individual names with the same last name. Thank you for your understanding and your co-operation.

Pastoral Reference Requests

In order for the pastor to be able to recommend you, he needs to know you. This is only possible if he has personal knowledge of your faith practice and involvement in the parish; not your relatives, but yourself, as this is a personal recommendation.

The following are required at St. Jude’s:

- ♦ Be (yourself, not your parents or grandparents) a registered member of the parish using offertory envelopes for at least one year.
- ♦ Be in the parish for participation in Sunday/Saturday mass for at least one year prior to approaching the pastor.
- ♦ Applicant must be actively involved in a parish ministry or volunteer activity for a least one year. requirements before making your request.

It is important for you to know that to be hired to teach in any Catholic School Board in Ontario as part of your application for employment you must provide a recommendation letter from your Pastor.
