St. Jude's Parish

Welcome to New Parishioners
We warmly welcome all new parishioners to St. Jude's and encourage them to register in the parish office. Offertory envelopes are available upon request when registration takes place.

Sacrament of Baptism
Contact the parish at least six months before the desired date of baptism to obtain information regarding requirements and sacramental preparation, and to discuss any other concerns you may have.

Confessions
The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available Saturdays at 4:00pm - 4:45pm and other times by appointment.

First Communion & Confirmation Program
Parents are asked to contact the office for information. Our programs begin in the fall (September or October) and end with the reception of the sacraments. Registration dates are announced in the bulletin, on our website, social media, and from the pulpit.

Sacrament of Matrimony
Couples contemplating marriage at St. Jude's Parish are asked to contact the parish office and review the marriage package before an interview with the priest. Diocesan regulation demands that marriages are booked one year in advance minimum.

Funerals
Please contact the Funeral Home of your choice first. They will contact the parish office to make church arrangements. Remember Catholic Cemeteries when making your arrangements.

R.C.I.A. and R.C.I.C. Programs
The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) and for Children (RCIC) has now been implemented. Please contact the office to register and arrange to fill out an application for next year. The RCIA will only take place if a minimum of 5 people register.

XXVIII Sunday in Ordinary Time

My Dear Brothers and Sisters, on the occasion of our Thanksgiving celebrations, I am reaching out to wish you all Happy Thanksgiving. When viewed in the light of the Holy Jubilee Year of Hope, Thanksgiving becomes more than a familial or cultural celebration, it becomes a profound expression of our relationship with God, the giver of all gifts. The very word “Eucharist” comes from the Greek eucharistein or eulogein, meaning “thanksgiving,” which recalls an ancient blessing that praised God’s works of creation, redemption and sanctification (cf. CCC 1328). When we celebrate the Eucharist, we participate in the supreme act of praise and thanksgiving in which the Church unites herself to Christ’s perfect offering of gratitude to the Father (cf. Ecclesia de Eucharistia, 8). In this way, the Eucharist not only sustains us but also teaches us how to live with hearts attuned to God’s blessings and shaped by gratitude. A spirituality of gratitude and thanksgiving pushes us deeper, to give thanks not only for material blessings but also for the gift of faith, for the communion of the Church, for the forgiveness of sins, and for the hope that does not disappoint (cf. Rom 5:5). Gratitude is a way of perceiving the world: we see creation as a gift, history as salvation unfolding, and our lives as entrusted with the precious mission of Jesus Christ. Regarding our mission, the word “Mass” comes from the Latin word missio which means “mission”, thereby uniting the Eucharist as an act of thanksgiving with our Christian vocation and mission (cf. CCC 1332). His Eminence Frank Cardinal Leo

XXVIII Domenica del Tempo Ordinario

Cari fratelli e sorelle, in occasione delle celebrazioni del Ringraziamento, vi scrivo per augurarvi a tutti un felice Giorno del Ringraziamento. Se visto alla luce del Santo Giubileo della Speranza, il Ringraziamento diventa più di una celebrazione familiare o culturale, diventa una profonda espressione del nostro rapporto con Dio, datore di ogni bene. La parola stessa “Eucaristia” deriva dal greco eucharistein o eulogein, che significa “ringraziamento”, e richiama un’antica benedizione che lodava le opere di creazione, redenzione e santificazione di Dio (cf. CCC 1328). Quando celebriamo l'Eucaristia, partecipiamo al supremo atto di lode e ringraziamento in cui la Chiesa si unisce alla perfetta offerta di gratitudine di Cristo al Padre (cf. Ecclesia de Eucharistia, 8). In questo modo, l'Eucaristia non solo ci sostiene ma ci insegna anche a vivere con cuori in sintonia con le benedizioni di Dio e plasmati dalla gratitudine. Una spiritualità di gratitudine e ringraziamento ci spinge più in profondità, a ringraziare non solo per le benedizioni materiali, ma anche per il dono della fede, per la comunione della Chiesa, per il perdono dei peccati e per la speranza che non delude (cf. Rm 5,5). La gratitudine è un modo di percepire il mondo: vediamo la creazione come un dono, la storia come salvezza che si dispiega e le nostre vite come affidate alla preziosa missione di Gesù Cristo. Riguardo alla nostra missione, la parola “Messa” deriva dal latino missio che significa “missione”, unendo così l'Eucaristia come atto di ringraziamento alla nostra vocazione e missione cristiana (cf. CCC 1332). Sua Eminenza il Cardinale Frank Leo

XXVIII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, Con motivo de la celebración de Acción de Gracias, les deseo a todos un Feliz Día de Acción de Gracias. A la luz del Jubileo de la Esperanza, el Día de Acción de Gracias se convierte en algo más que una celebración familiar o cultural; se convierte en una expresión profunda de nuestra relación con Dios, el dador de todos los dones. La palabra “Eucaristía” proviene del griego eucharistein o eulogein, que significa “acción de gracias”, lo que evoca una antigua bendición que alababa las obras de creación, redención y santificación de Dios (cf. CIC 1328). Cuando celebramos la Eucaristía, participamos en el acto supremo de alabanza y acción de gracias en el que la Iglesia se une a la ofrenda perfecta de gratitud de Cristo al Padre (cf. Ecclesia de Eucharistia, 8). De esta manera, la Eucaristía no solo nos sostiene, sino que también nos enseña a vivir con corazones en sintonía a las bendiciones de Dios y moldeados por la gratitud. Una espiritualidad de gratitud y acción de gracias nos impulsa a dar gracias más profundamente no solo por las bendiciones materiales, sino también por el don de la fe, por la comunión de la Iglesia, por el perdón de los pecados y por la esperanza que no defrauda (cf. Rm 5,5). La gratitud es una forma de percibir el mundo: vemos la creación como un don, la historia como la salvación en desarrollo y nuestras vidas como encomendadas a la preciosa misión de Jesucristo. En cuanto a nuestra misión, la palabra «Misa» proviene del latín missio, que significa «misión», uniendo así la Eucaristía como acto de acción de gracias con nuestra vocación y misión cristianas (cf. CIC 1332). Su Eminencia el Cardenal Frank Leo

Pray for Vocations
How has Jesus touched you and made you whole? In gratitude, ask Him how He would like you to respond. Could Jesus be calling you to follow Him as a priest, sister, brother or deacon? If God is calling you, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations for the Archdiocese of Toronto, at 416-968-997, vocations@archtoronto.org

Lectio Divina
Come, join us for Lectio Divina (scriptural reading, meditation & prayer) every second and fourth Sunday of the month from 2:00pm at St. Jude’s Parish-Holy Family Room.
October 12th, Luke 17:11-19
October 26th, Luke 18:9-14
Coordinator: Anita Espino 647-878-7195

World Mission Sunday Special Collection
Next weekend, October 18th and 19th there will be a second collection for the Evangelization of the Nations, otherwise known as World Mission Sunday. This is a worldwide collection for the missionary church, and it is our opportunity to assist at-need Catholic Communities globally. We are called to share from our abundance with those less fortunate who lack the basic essentials to know, love and praise God. Thank you for your support of this important work.

A World at Prayer is a World at Peace
As the Church celebrates the Marian Month of October, we are all invited to pray the daily Rosary. On Monday October 13, feast day of the last of the five series of the apparition of our Lady at Fatima, and Wednesday October 22nd, on the Feast day of St. John Paul II, all Catholics are asked to participate from the quiet space of your home to join a collective power of individuals from all corners of the world in prayer of the Rosary for peace in the world.

Office Closed
Monday October 13th, we celebrate Thanksgiving, the parish office will be closed and the morning mass is at the regular time 8:00am.

Grupo Renovación Carismática San Judas Tadeo
Invita al seminario “Vida en el Espíritu Santo” los días Viernes 17 de Octubre 7:30pm - 10:00pm y Sábado 18 de Octubre 8:00am - 4:00pm. Para mas información contacte a Sarina Flores al 416-409-2319 o Karla Torrez al 647-764-2316.

Mass Attendance Count
As requested by the Archdiocese, we will be conducting the annual mass attendance count on the weekends of October 18/19, and October 25/26. This important exercise allows the Archdiocese to have a clear understanding of the needs of the many churches within the Archdiocese to better plan and prepare for liturgical and spiritual services.

Café de la Amistad
En celebración a nuestro patrono “San Judas Tadeo” tendremos un Café de la Amistad el Domingo, 26 de Octubre, después de la misa en español, en el Salón Parroquial. Si usted desea hacer alguna donación, los miembros del comité estarán a la salida de la iglesia para anotar sus donaciones. Gracias por su apoyo y colaboración. Los fondos recaudados serán destinados hacia los pagos del préstamo obtenido para el techo nuevo de la parroquia. ¡Los esperamos!

ShareLife
Help fill plates this Thanksgiving
Our Catholic family is called not only to witness God’s love but to live it boldly. As Scripture reminds us in Isaiah 58:10, ‘If you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness.’ Please give at the parish using a Share-Life envelope, or at sharelife.org/donate. Thus far we have raised $27,094.20 or 93.4% towards our goal of $29,000.00. Thank you for living the Gospel!

Mass Intentions
Mass intentions to be announced on week-end masses and the following week, must be requested by Wednesday of each week at office closing time or 4:00pm. We cannot change dates for masses previously requested. Each mass intention can include up to two individual names with the same last name. Thank you for your understanding and your co-operation.

Pastoral Reference Requests
In order for the pastor to be able to recommend you, he needs to know you. This is only possible if he has personal knowledge of your faith practice and involvement in the parish; not your relatives, but yourself, as this is a personal recommendation. The following are required at St. Jude’s:
♦ Be (yourself, not your parents or grandparents) a registered member of the parish using offertory envelopes for at least one year.
♦ Be in the parish for participation in Sunday/Saturday mass for at least one year prior to approaching the pastor.
♦ Applicant must be actively involved in a parish ministry or volunteer activity for a least one year. requirements before making your request.
It is important for you to know that to be hired to teach in any Catholic School Board in Ontario as part of your application for employment you must provide a recommendation letter from your Pastor.
