XXVI Sunday in Ordinary Time

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,
The Readings for the Mass of St. Michael, include the Book of Revelation, which presents us with a striking image of a battle between the Archangel and his angels against the dragon (Rev 12:7-12). At first glance, this celestial battle may seem removed from our daily lives, but in reality, it names a truth all too familiar: Wherever people live and work together, especially those who belong to Christ through faith, there are forces seeking to divide, distort and unsettle.

The name “Michael”, which means “Who is like God?”, is a declaration of a fundamental and foundational truth, a reminder that God is the measure of all things. The truth of the Gospel is something we receive, not something we create, it forms our identity and marks our destiny. We do not invent our own path all alone but rather discern it in fidelity, in community and walk along it in hope. In this regard, St. Michael stands as our guardian not only of the Church’s safety (cf. Dan 12:1), but of her very identity. We journey through life together as a community of faith, under the protection of the heavenly hosts, sustained by grace, guided by the Holy Spirit and defended against all that would seek to fracture our unity. St. Michael is often depicted as restoring order against chaos. I invite you to consider how we might work together to do the same in our lives, at home, at work, indeed wherever we find ourselves. St. Michael the Archangel, our patron saint, pray for us. For His Eminence Frank Cardinal Leo’s complete message please visit archtoronto.org

XXVI Domenica Del Tempo Ordinario

Cari fratelli e sorelle,
Le letture della Messa di San Michele (la festa di San Michele Arcangelo) includono un brano dell'Apocalisse che ci offre un'immagine potente: la battaglia dell'Arcangelo e dei suoi angeli contro il drago (Ap 12,7-12). A prima vista, questo scontro celeste può sembrare lontano dalla nostra vita quotidiana; in realtà, esso descrive una verità fin troppo familiare: ovunque le persone vivano e lavorino insieme – specialmente coloro che appartengono a Cristo mediante la fede – vi sono forze che cercano di seminare divisione, distorsione e inquietudine. Il nome “Michele”, che significa “Chi è come Dio?”, è la proclamazione di una verità fondamentale e fondante, un richiamo al fatto che Dio è la misura di tutte le cose. La verità del Vangelo è qualcosa che riceviamo, non qualcosa che creiamo: essa plasma la nostra identità e segna il nostro destino.

Non inventiamo il nostro cammino in totale solitudine; piuttosto, lo discerniamo nella fedeltà e nella comunità, percorrendolo poi nella speranza. In questo senso, San Michele è custode non solo della sicurezza della Chiesa (cfr. Dn 12,1), ma della sua stessa identità. Attraversiamo la vita insieme come comunità di fede, sotto la protezione delle schiere celesti, sostenuti dalla grazia, guidati dallo Spirito Santo e difesi da tutto ciò che tenta di infrangere la nostra unità.

San Michele è spesso raffigurato nell'atto di ristabilire l'ordine contro il caos. Vi invito a riflettere su come possiamo collaborare per fare altrettanto nelle nostre vite: a casa, al lavoro e ovunque ci troviamo.

San Michele Arcangelo, nostro patrono, prega per noi. Per leggere il messaggio completo di Sua Eminenza il Cardinale Frank Leo visitate il sito archtoronto.org.

XXVI Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:
Las lecturas de la Misa de la fiesta de San Miguel Arcángel; incluyen el libro del Apocalipsis, que nos presenta una imagen impactante de la batalla del Arcángel y sus ángeles contra el dragón (Ap 12, 7-12). A primera vista, esta batalla celestial puede parecer ajena a nuestra vida cotidiana; sin embargo, en realidad, señala una verdad que nos resulta muy familiar: allí donde las personas conviven y trabajan juntas, especialmente aquellas que pertenecen a Cristo por la fe, existen fuerzas que buscan dividir, distorsionar y sembrar inquietud.

El nombre «Miguel», que significa «¿Quién como Dios?», es la declaración de una verdad fundamental y fundacional, un recordatorio de que Dios es la medida de todas las cosas. La verdad del Evangelio es algo que recibimos, no algo que creamos; ella forma nuestra identidad y marca nuestro destino.

No inventamos nuestro propio camino en soledad, sino que lo discernimos con fidelidad y en comunidad, recorriéndolo con esperanza. En este sentido, San Miguel se erige como guardián no solo de la seguridad de la Iglesia (cf. Dn 12, 1), sino también de su propia identidad. Caminamos por la vida unidos como comunidad de fe, bajo la protección de las huestes celestiales, sostenidos por la gracia, guiados por el Espíritu Santo y defendidos frente a todo aquello que pretenda fracturar nuestra unidad.

A menudo se representa a San Miguel restaurando el orden frente al caos. Los invito a reflexionar sobre cómo podemos colaborar para hacer lo mismo en nuestras propias vidas: en el hogar, en el trabajo y, de hecho, allí donde nos encontremos.

San Miguel Arcángel, nuestro santo patrono, ruega por nosotros. Para leer el mensaje completo de Su Eminencia el cardenal Frank Leo visite archtoronto.org.

Season of Creation
September 1 - October 4, 2026

This season begins on September 1, World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, and ends on October 4, the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of ecology. For 2026 the theme is “Living Water” and the symbol is “Immersion in Living Water”, inspired by Ezekiel 47: 9, 12. The Season of Creation challenges the entire global Christian family to care for God’s creation through prayer and action.

In his message for the 11th World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, Pope Leo XIV, invites us “to prioritize development and sustainability over violence and destruction.”

Safety Reminder

We remind the community that for safety reasons it is NOT permitted to place strollers or wheelchairs in the church hallways during mass. The hallways need to be clear to evacuate the building in case of an emergency.

Mass intentions to be announced on week-end masses and the following week, must be requested by Wednesday of each week at office closing time or 4:00pm. We cannot change dates for masses previously requested. Each mass intention can include up to two individual names with the same last name. Thank you for your understanding and your co-operation.
